15	Manish Sinha Gridlogics Technologies Pvt Ltd	As you know we are submitting the RFP response. The RFP document states that the EMD draft should be valid for 180 days from date of opening of tender. However, perhaps you may already know this that as per RBI guidelines, with effect from April 1, 2012, the validity period of Cheques, Demand Drafts, Pay Orders and Banker's Cheques has been reduced from 6 months to 3 months, from the date of issue of the instrument. Also the date on the draft is the date of issue and due to logistical issues its not possible to get a draft on the morning of tender submission. So the draft we are submitting is issued on 14th Jan (today) and is valid for 3 months. Can you please let me know if this is fine and will not be an issue.	The RBI guidelines will ofcourse prevail. It will be the responsibility of the bidder to ensure that EMD remains valid for 180 days. The bidders may therefore submit another instrument before the expiry of the first instrument, which was submitted with the proposal.

16	Akhilesh K Gupta	Page 7 of RFP, item 2.b. (iii) IPC database (iv) CPC database (v) ECLA database We assume, these are databases, where the patent codes IPC, CPC, and ECLA are listed along with explanatory texts. Is that assumption correct? ECLA codes are not in use any more; replaced by CPC – could this requirement be left out then? Page 7 of RFP, item 2.d. (iii) EPO PATSTAT – this is an EPO product; do we understand the requirement correctly, that we are requested to purchase this database from EPO on behalf of IPO? (iv) Register of patent authorities – can this requirement be fulfilled by providing electronic access to the registers of certain patent authorities?	Your assumption is correct about the IPC, CPC and ECLA databases. Regarding ECLA, this is a requirement of IPO and can not be left at this stage. You may detail out the availability and type of access of EPO PATSTAT and Register of patent authorities with you in your bid document.
